

Global Education

Quiz

Global Education

1. What government initiative in 2013 provided more children access to school and education?
2. According to the UN SDG statistics how many primary-aged children still remain out of school?
3. Fill in the gaps:
By 2030, ensure that all ..... and ..... complete ....., equitable and quality ..... and ..... education leading to ..... and ..... learning outcomes
4. In the FNDP 3.1.5-Education what does the government aim to provide?
5. In the FNDP 3.1.8-Y&S Development, what does the government aim to empower the youth to be?
6. In the SDG review, what was the enrolment percentage for primary school?
7. When did the arrangement of using New Zealand curriculum cease?
8. When was the first National Curriculum Framework introduced in Fiji?
9. How many special education facilities currently exist in Fiji?
10. What age do children attend Primary School in Fiji?

Answers on the next page

1. What government initiative in 2013 provided more children access to school and education?
Government funded free education for all
2. According to the UN SDG statistics how many primary-aged children still remain out of school? 57 million
3. Fill in the gaps:
By 2030, ensure that all boys and girls complete free, equitable and quality primary and secondary education leading to relevant and effective learning outcomes
4. In the FNDP 3.1.5-Education what does the government aim to provide? 'Quality education for all'
5. In the FNDP 3.1.8-Y&S Development, what does the government aim to empower the youth to be?
'the agents of change and promote sports development'
6. In the SDG review, what was the enrolment percentage for primary school? 99%
7. When did the arrangement of using New Zealand curriculum cease? 1990s
8. When was the first National Curriculum Framework introduced in Fiji? 2013
9. How many special education facilities currently exist in Fiji? 17
10. What age do children attend Primary School in Fiji? 6-14