The Role

The role of Project Leader - Fiji is a vital position within Think Pacific as you work as a leader team (with between 2-3 other leaders) to guide a series of 16 Day, 1 month or 2-month projects from start to finish. This position is a unique opportunity to work for an award winning non-for-profit organisation. You will gain huge experience, knowledge and skills in leadership and a broad understanding of the complexities and need for international development.

You must be able to handle difficult situations and problems that arise quickly, and with care and sensitivity.

Our leaders are culturally aware and passionate about respecting Fijian culture, values and customs and respecting the importance of our aims and government directives.

Leaders live alongside the volunteers 24 hours a day; guiding each day, ensuring timeframes, standards and objectives are met and supporting volunteers and youth members to collaborate on aims such as; public health, mental health, sports development, conservation & environment. Our Leaders are passionate about what we do and how we do it. They are central to the success of our projects and our positive impact in Fiji.

Our Programmes

In-Country Projects and Placements

In May 2022 Think Pacific shall re-commence our in-country projects and placements for students and young people.

These projects are delivered in partnership with local Ministries, organisations and community stakeholders across a range of fields including Public Health, Mental Health, Sports Development, Business & Enterprise, Engineering, Environment and Climate Change, and is a culturally immersive experience for the students and volunteers.

For more information on our in country programmes, please see here: Fiji Volunteer Expeditions | Think Pacific

Key Responsibilities

Volunteer Support

- Pastoral Care: Acting as a point of contact for all volunteers for pastoral care and support if experiencing anxiety, mental ill-health or following 'traumatic' events or incidents.
- Covid Protocols: Working with the project coordinating team to ensure Think Pacific's compliance with local and international Covid protocols, including the Care Fiji Commitment program, and ensuring relevant processes are updated and implemented effectively.
- Personal Project Planning (PPP): Weekly (PPP) scheduled between the leader and each volunteer. PPP's implemented to structure volunteer's individual aims on the project and to offer pastoral care and support – listening, supporting, encouraging and guiding each team member.
- Team Support: Facilitating group development and resolving group conflict when required with particular regard to cultural sensitivity.

Project Delivery

- Facilitating and Delivering the Project Aims: Delivering and facilitating fun, interactive workshops across a variety of aims with the sole purpose of creating a fun, enjoyable environment that supports collaboration between the international volunteers and youth group members.
- Workshop Support: Instructing and supporting participants with the skills necessary to successfully engage in the programme and motivating them to achieve the desired goals.
- Daily Briefing and Debrief Sessions: Daily briefing and de-brief for the volunteer team to ensure project objectives are being achieved and that team is happy and confident in their roles.

Energy and Enthusiasm: Vital as a leader to consistently bring energy and enthusiasm across all areas of the project, as this energy sets the tone and the standard for the team, and the project as a whole.

Volunteer Healthcare

- Volunteer Healthcare: Ensuring the health of all volunteers, including monitoring risks, and undertaking first aid.
- Daily First-Aid Clinics: Ensure daily clinics are being held as a direct point in which participants can come to you for any support around healthcare

Project Preparation & Briefings

- Training Days: Attend preparation visits to project settings, with focus upon:
 - Health Care
 - Policy Compliance
- Volunteer Resort Team Briefings: Assist and support the delivery of the team training sessions to fully prepare the team ready for the project. Facilitate team activities so that we begin to create strong bonds and team cohesion before arriving into the village.

Project Coordination

- Working Effectively as a Leadership Team: Working within a leader team (2-3 leaders) you will have the responsibility for a team of up to 24 volunteers on a 24 hour a day basis during each expedition.
- Project Coordinator Daily Update: Reporting to and working closely with your Project Coordinator over daily project aims, updating the status of the expedition and resolving any team issues.
- Creating a positive team dynamic: Monitoring and assessing team morale throughout to make sure no one is being excluded and the whole team is working together towards a common goal and successful project.
- Village Engagement & Support: Working closely with the appointed village spokesperson to ensure cultural protocols are abided by and the team makes a sensitive integration into the community. Establish yourself as a point of contact for the community.
- Project Reporting: Complete a Project Evaluation Report once the project has been completed to send out to our local stakeholders.

You may be required to carry out other duties, as are within your capabilities and level of responsibility, in order to meet the needs of the business.
